Write one paragraph about the activity.

Professor G.O. Rajwar, former Principal and Deputy Director, Higher Education, Uttarakhand participated in the workshop as a resource person. College Principal Professor Sumita Srivastava inaugurated the workshop by welcoming the resource person. Professor Sumita Srivastava said that NAAC accreditation is proposed in the college. The more information the college gets in this regard, the more the college will benefit. He said that compiling data and achievements related to NAAC is an important process for the college to get higher grades. Only compliance with the guidelines issued by NAAC will lead the college towards good grades. Resource person Professor GS Rajwar shared detailed information on all seven parameters of NAAC. He said that as a member of the NAAC team, he has visited many higher educational institutions in different states of the country and he will share the experience he has gained.

Professor G.O. Rajwar told in his lecture that along with quality education, it is necessary for the college to fully discharge its social responsibilities, he also said that there should be facilities like drinking water, toilets, high quality library etc. for the students in the college. The facility should be better. He further said that the institute should not present false figures and there should not be any kind of data manipulation. While conducting the workshop, IQAC coordinator of the college, Mr. Parmanand Chauhan said that preparations are being made for NAAC accreditation in the college and all the data and records of the last 5 years have been compiled for the seven criteria. The college will apply for NAAC in the month of December 2023.

In this workshop, assistant professors Dr. Brish Kumar, Dr. Sandeep Kumar, Dr. Dinesh Chandra, Dr. Madhu Bala Juwantha, Dr. Chatar Singh and non-teaching staff included senior administrative officer Mrs. Reshma Bisht, assistant librarian Mr. Vinod Kumar, Mr. Dinesh Singh, Mr. Sushil Chandra., Mr. Bhuvan Chandra, Mr. Anil Singh, Mr. Roshan Singh, Mrs. Reena, Mr. Mohan Lal and many other girl students were present.
